

YOUR TV GUIDE FOR: OCTOBER 23 TO 29

TVWeek

B.C.'S ENTERTAINMENT & LIFESTYLE MAGAZINE

BENEDICT CUMBERBATCH
SHERLOCK

TOP 10
THINGS TO DO
THIS WEEK!

COMMUNITY
THE HALLOWEEN
EPISODE
— So Funny It's Scary!

Plus

Fall Deals

Why Now
Is The TIME
TO BUY

Soothe Your Senses With A

HOME SAUNA

Love
Blooms On

House

But Will It Last?

Stars HUGH LAURIE And
LISA EDELSTEIN Spill The Beans On The Ups & Downs Of
The House-Cuddy Romance

TVWEEKONLINE.CA

October 23 to 29, 2010 • $3.49

7 25274 70541 2

get the look

perky peacoats

BY CATHERINE DUNWOODY

TREND WATCH The classic peacoat never goes out of style, but some years it's a little more front and centre on the fashion runways and boutique racks. This fall I'm seeing it everywhere, in all kinds of fabrics and colours.

HOW TO WEAR IT The original peacoat was worn by sailors and featured a boxy shape made in heavy navy-blue wool, but the cuts for women are now far more shapely and feminine. A true peacoat is hip-length, double breasted, and usually has large buttons and broad lapels. The coat looks great over everything — from jeans to skirts.

WHERE TO GET IT I found these at boutiques and online.

Vancouver label Nixxi's peacoat, $256, in hemp and organic cotton. nixxi.ca

Wool peacoat, $535, by Milly, available at Holt Renfrew. holtrenfrew.com

Cropped peacoat with ribbed sleeves, $235, by Cartise. cartise.com