Fashion Friend-zy: We've Got You Covered! Coats and Outwear Options to Heat Up the Deep Freeze

By Genny Iannucci

Although Jack Frost may not be nipping at your nose yet, it's time to start thinking about stylish chill chasers and fabulous coats. Get ready to cozy up to the cool temps ahead with this season's newest outerwear options.

Marching Orders: Coats with a military beat take the season by storm, with updated accents including cheeky plaids, new collar details, bold button accents and more body-conscious shapes. Delivering polish and a decidedly feminine note, these coats are the perfect way to 'hup to it' come sleet or snow!

The Great Cover-up: The ultimate option for early fall and transitional times of the year, capes and shorter length capelets offer free flowing sophisticated style. Available in a range of colours and wonderful plaids, keep your look in proportion by balancing the fullness of your cape with more streamlined silhouettes in the lower half.

coats to cropped bomber versions, sassy swing coats and ultra hip vests. Alternatively, faux fur makes its mark as a luxurious detail on cloth coats.

Creature Comforts: Faux fur is 'a flying' this season! A chic cold weather warrior, faux fur effortlessly dresses up or dresses down and is equally at home with jeans as it is with evening and office wear. This winter look for faux fur in a myriad of styles from sleek knee length

Get Down: Down and polyfil coats make a move uptown and get an urban aesthetic with glossy finishes, striking collar details and refined shaping through the body. Whether you're headed for Bay Street or your neighbourhood convenience store, down and polyfil coats offer tasty good looks and smart style.

True Colours – Move over black and navy blue! Turn winter on its heel with a bold hued coat. Lush scarlet and regal purple are the season's brightest stars while elegant camel makes a subdued yet powerful statement.

Keep warm and look fabulous!
